

It has come to my attention that Sattelite radio is being attacked by its competitors for having an unfair advantage in the radio market. I pay for xm radio when there are several stations that are free in my area. I have the right to listen to what I want , when I want, and these lobbyists and legal groups are trying to take that away. Please do not let this happen. I want my XM Radio!!

Sincerely

Dave VanBrocklin